

Communion Practice: We believe that Christ is truly present in Holy Communion and, as we try to be faithful to Christ in the serving of this Sacrament, we ask that everyone be examined and instructed by the Pastor before receiving Holy Communion. All confirmed members of this parish, who have been regularly examined by the Pastor, are welcome to partake of the Holy Eucharist today. We also welcome the members who are in good standing of any of the parishes served by the Bishop, Pastors, and Deacons of The Evangelical Lutheran Diocese of North America (ELDoNA), and who have spoken to the Pastor prior to the service. Members of other Lutheran parishes or other denominations are kindly asked to refrain from communing today. The Pastor would be glad to make an appointment with anyone to discuss our teachings and/or our parish.

A Prayer upon Entering Church

Almighty, Ever-Living God, grant that I may gladly hear Thy Word and that all my worship may be acceptable unto Thee; through Jesus Christ, my Lord. Amen.

A Prayer before Communion

Dear Savior, upon Thy gracious invitation I come to Thine Altar. Let me find favor in Thine eyes that I may approach Thy Table in true faith and receive the Sacrament to the salvation of my soul. Amen.

A Prayer after Communion

O Thou blessed Savior Jesus Christ, Who hast given Thyself to me in this holy Sacrament, keep me in Thy faith and favor; as Thou livest in me, let me also live in Thee. May Thy holy Body and Blood preserve me in the true faith unto everlasting life. Amen.

A Prayer at the Close of the Service

Grant, I beseech Thee, Almighty God, that the Word which I have heard this day may through Thy grace be so engrafted in my heart that I may bring forth the fruit of the Spirit; through Jesus Christ, my Lord. Amen.

An Excerpt from Luther's Writings

"The Lord points out here five things necessary to constitute true prayer. The first is God's promise, which is the chief thing and is the foundation and power of all prayers. ...The second requisite of true prayer, following that of God's promise, is faith—that we believe the promise is true, and do not doubt that God will give what He promises. ...The third requisite of true prayer is, that one must name definitely something that he brings to God or for which he prays; as for strong faith, for love, for peace, and for the comfort of his neighbor. ...The fourth element in true prayer is that we must desire, or wish that the petition be granted, which is nothing but asking; ...The fifth requisite of true prayer is, that we ask in the Name of Christ. This is nothing more than that we come before God in the faith of Christ and comfort ourselves with the sure confidence that He is our Mediator, through Whom all things are given to us." From Martin Luther's Sermon in the Church Postil for Rogate Sunday.

Alleluia! | Al- | le- | lu- | ia! (Isaiah 48:20b)

P: || Make a joyful shout to God, all the | earth! | - *
Sing out the honor of His name; Make | His | praise | glo- | rious. (Psalm 66:1-2)

C: GLORIA PATRI (From Hymnal; Sung by Congregation)

P: || With a voice of singing, declare, pro- | claim | this, *
Utter it to the end of the earth. | Al- | le- | lu- | ia!

P: || “The Lord has redeemed His servant | Ja- | cob!” *
Alleluia! | Al- | le- | lu- | ia! (Isaiah 48:20b)

Collect

O God, from Whom all good things do come: Grant to us Thy humble servants, that by Thy holy inspiration we may think those things that be right and by Thy merciful guiding may perform the same; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost, ever One God, world without end.

Gradual (Chanted by Pastor)

P: || Alleluia! Alleluia! It was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the | dead | *

And to enter in- | to | His | glo- | ry.

|| Alleluia! I came forth from the Father and have come into the | world. | - *

Again, I leave the world and go to the Father. | Al- | le- | lu- |
| ia! (St. Luke 24:46b paraphrase; St. John 16:28)

James 1:22-27

²² But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves.

²³ For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man observing his natural face in a mirror; ²⁴ for he observes himself, goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was. ²⁵ But he who looks into the perfect law of liberty and continues in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the work, this one will be blessed in what he does. ²⁶ If anyone among you thinks he is religious, and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this one's religion is useless. ²⁷ Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their trouble, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.

St. John 16:23b-30

^{23b} “Most assuredly, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in My name He will give you. ²⁴ Until now you have asked nothing in My name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full. ²⁵ These things I have spoken to you in figurative language; but the time is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figurative language, but I will tell you plainly about the Father. ²⁶ In that day you will ask in My name, and I do not say to you that I shall pray the Father for you; ²⁷ for the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me, and have believed that I came forth from God. ²⁸ I came forth from the Father and have come into the world. Again, I leave the world and go to the Father.” ²⁹ His disciples said to Him, “See, now You are speaking plainly, and using no figure of speech! ³⁰ Now we are sure that You know all things, and have no need that anyone should question You. By this we believe that You came forth from God.”
