Communion Practice: We believe that Christ is truly present in Holy Communion and, as we try to be faithful to Christ in the serving of this Sacrament, we ask that everyone be examined and instructed by the Pastor before receiving Holy Communion. All confirmed members of this parish, who have been regularly examined by the Pastor, are welcome to partake of the Holy Eucharist today. We also welcome the members who are in good standing of any of the parishes served by the Bishop, Pastors, and Deacons of The Evangelical Lutheran Diocese of North America (ELDoNA), and who have spoken to the Pastor prior to the service. Members of other Lutheran parishes or other denominations are kindly asked to refrain from communing today. The Pastor would be glad to make an appointment with anyone to discuss our teachings and/or our parish.

A Prayer upon Entering Church

Almighty, Ever-Living God, grant that I may gladly hear Thy Word and that all my worship may be acceptable unto Thee; through Jesus Christ, my Lord. Amen.

A Prayer before Communion

Dear Savior, upon Thy gracious invitation I come to Thine Altar. Let me find favor in Thine eyes that I may approach Thy Table in true faith and receive the Sacrament to the salvation of my soul. Amen.

A Prayer after Communion

O Thou blessed Savior Jesus Christ, Who hast given Thyself to me in this holy Sacrament, keep me in Thy faith and favor; as Thou livest in me, let me also live in Thee. May Thy holy Body and Blood preserve me in the true faith unto everlasting life. Amen.

A Prayer at the Close of the Service

Grant, I beseech Thee, Almighty God, that the Word which I have heard this day may through Thy grace be so engrafted in my heart that I may bring forth the fruit of the Spirit; through Jesus Christ, my Lord. Amen.

An Excerpt from Luther's Writings

"The Master uses here the Hebrew, which we do not. 'Mammon' means goods or riches, and such goods as one does not need, but holds as a treasure, and it is gold and possessions that one deposits as stock and storage provisions. This Christians do not do, they gather no treasures; but they ask God for their daily bread. However, others are not satisfied with this, they gather a great store upon which they may depend, in case our God should die today or tomorrow, they might then know a way out. Therefore St. Paul says, in Eph. 5:5 and Col. 3:5, riches and covetousness are the god of this world and are idolatry, with this Christ here agrees and calls it serving mammon." Excerpted from a sermon in the Church Postil of Martin Luther for the Fifteenth Sunday after Trinity Sunday.

##. Draw Nigh, and Take the Body of the Lord

 With heav'nly Bread makes them that hunger whole, Gives living waters to the thirsting soul.
 Alpha and Omega, to whom shall bow
 All nations at the Doom, is with us now.

##. O Lord! I Sing with Mouth and Heart

- 5. Who warmeth us in cold and frost? Who shields us from the wind? Who orders it that oil and must We in their season find?
- 7. O Lord, of this and all our store Thou art the author blest: Thou keepest watch before our door, While we securely rest.
- 8. Thou feedest us from year to year. And constant dost abide: With ready help in time of fear Thou standest at our side.
- 9. With patience dost Thou ever chide, And chasten'st sparingly; Thou castest all our sins aside, And drown'st them in the sea.
- 10. When silent woe our bosom rends. Thy pity sees our grief. And gives what to our glory tends No less than our relief.
- 11. Thou knowest when a Christian weeps, 17. His wisdom never plans in vain, And why his tear-drops fall: And in the book Thy mercy keeps These things are noted all.
- 12. Our deepest needs dost Thou supply, Thou giv'st what lasts for aye, Thou lead'st us to our home on high, When hence we pass away.

- 6. Who is it life and health bestows? Who keeps us with His hand In golden peace, wards off war's woes From our dear native land?
- 13. Cheer up! my heart, rejoice and sing, A cheerful trust maintain! For God, the source of everything, Thy portion will remain.
- 14. He is thy treasure, He thy joy, Thy life, and light, and Lord, Thy counsellor when doubts annoy, Thy shield and great reward.
- 15. In restless thought or blank despair, Why spend each day and night? On Him who made thee cast thy care; He makes our burdens light.
- 16. Did not His love, and truth, and power Watch o'er thy childhood's day? Has He not oft in threat'ning hour, Turned dreaded ills away?
- Ne'er falters or mistakes: All that His counsels did ordain A happy ending makes.
- 18. Upon thy lips, then, lay thy hand, And trust His guiding love; Then firm as rock thy peace shall stand, Here and in heav'n above.
